

Superhero Check-In

(Year 3 - Ages 8-9):

Lesson 5 of 9

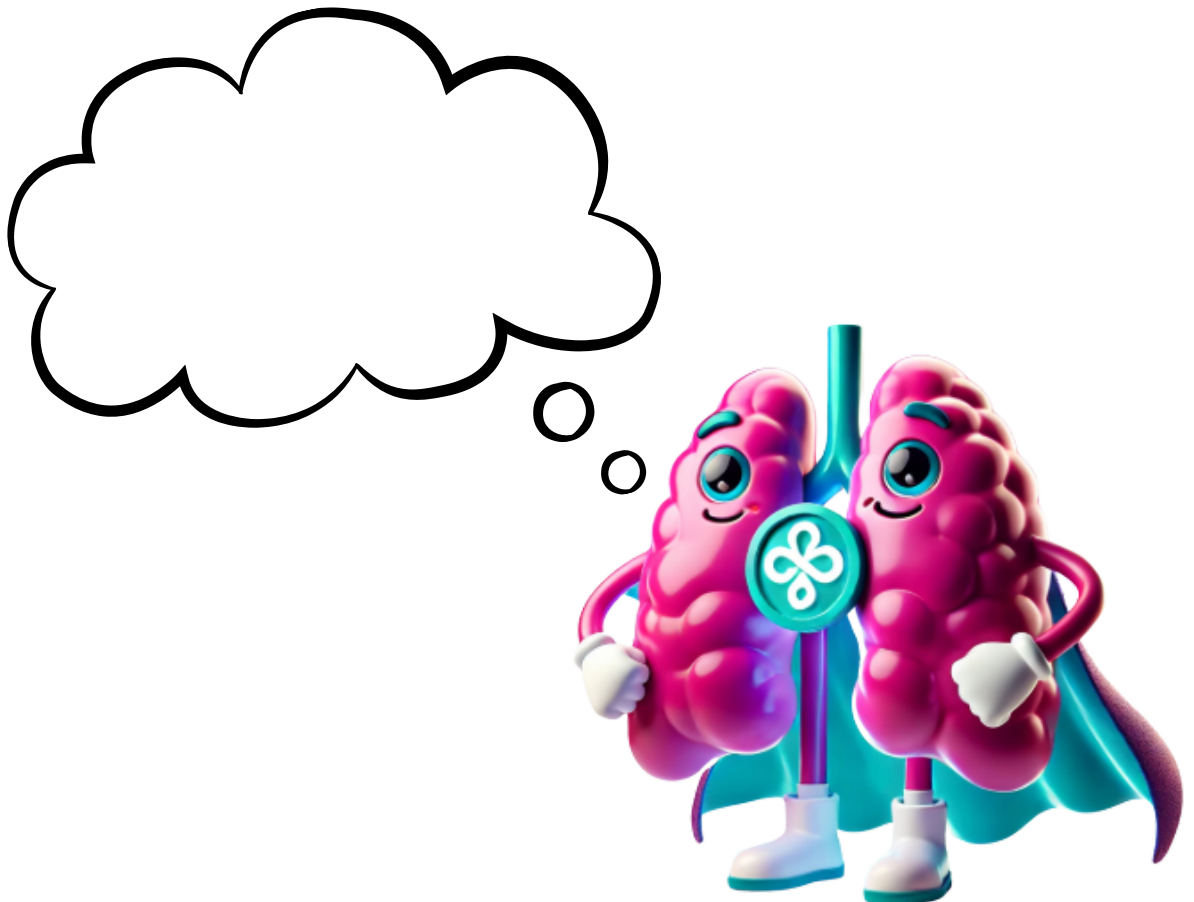

Name: _____ Class: _____

Student Worksheet

Activity: What's the Signal?

Task: Even superheroes send signals when they need a break! Imagine Lenny the Lungs is feeling tired after a big run. What is one signal he might send to let you know? Draw or write the signal in the speech bubble.

Lenny the Lungs might send a signal like: _____

Student Worksheet

Activity: My Superhero Check-In Comic

Task: Talking to your 'Team Manager' (a trusted adult in your family) is the best way to help your superhero team. Create a short comic strip below showing a child having a 'Superhero Check-In' conversation about how they are feeling.

The form consists of three identical, vertically stacked comic strip panels. Each panel is a large white rectangle with a thick black border. Along the top and bottom edges of each panel, there are 12 small white squares, evenly spaced, representing film sprocket holes. The panels are currently empty, intended for a student to draw a comic strip.

