

The Process Pathway Cards

Instructions:

Print, cut, and shuffle before the activity.

Students work in groups to arrange each pathway in the correct order.

Colour-code for clarity:

-  Organ Pathway – Blue Cards
-  Tissue Pathway – Green Cards

Card 1

The Hero's Gift Begins

A Helping Hero and their family make the Hero's Pledge and share their kind wish with the Team Managers.

Card 2

The Team Springs into Action

Special Team Managers contact the Super-Mechanics (doctors and coordinators) to prepare for the gift.

Card 3

Matching the Gift

The Team uses science to find the right match for each organ – just like finding the perfect puzzle piece.

Card 4

The Hero's Gift Travels

The organ is safely transported to the hospital where the recipient is waiting. Time is very important!

Card 5

The Super-Mechanics Get to Work

Doctors and nurses work carefully to give the gift to the recipient so their machine can work again.

Card 6

The Treasure of More Time

The recipient recovers and can breathe, move, and live more fully – all thanks to a Helping Hero's gift of time and life.

Card 1

The Hero's Gift Begins

A Helping Hero and their family make the Hero's Pledge and share their kind wish with the Team Managers.

Card 2

The Team Prepares the Gift

Super-Mechanics carefully collect special materials like skin, bone, heart valves, or corneas to help others.

Card 3

To the Tissue Bank!

The gift is taken to the Tissue Bank – a scientific "treasure vault" where it's tested, cleaned, and safely stored.

Card 4

Stored and Protected

Tissues can be stored for weeks or months until the perfect match is found. This gives time for careful planning.

Card 5

Matching the Gift

When a recipient needs help, the Team Managers check the Tissue Bank to find a perfect match.

Card 6

The Gift Is Given

Doctors use the stored tissue to help repair or restore someone's body – giving them comfort, movement, or sight.

Card 7

The Treasure of More Time

The recipient recovers and returns to their "Dream Adventures," carrying the Hero's echo forward in their life.
